New Extra Large Red Mango PLU Code 3488 for Sizes 7 and Larger

PLU code 4959 is now for size 8 to 10

Orlando, Fla (January 24, 2017) – A new PLU number 3488 has been approved and assigned for red mangos size 7 and larger by the Produce Marketing Association and the International Federation for Produce Standards. PLU code 4959 now denotes red mangos sizes 8 to 10. The new PLU number has been added to the international database and is available for immediate use.

As retail mango movement grows, more retailers are willing to carry a variety of sizes at the same time. As a result, the National Mango Board (NMB) received a formal request for a new PLU code from multiple retailers and mango shippers. A survey was conducted to ensure widespread retailer and industry support for this change and based on the data collected, the NMB board members voted to move forward with an application for the new PLU number.

The new PLU code affects the two highlighted rows in the table below. The addition of the XL Red Mango PLU means the red mango system will match the size breaks already in place for green mangos.
