

Online
June 4, 2010
Impressions: 1,493
Ad Equivalency: $1,000

National Mango Board moves ahead with ambitious program

6/4/10 – Though the total volume of mango exports was down about 10 percent by the end of May, most of the losses were early in the season and mango importers are expecting good supplies for the next several months. In fact, May shipments were running ahead of last year, and the outlook is good for the foreseeable future, which includes June and July.

Read more > The Produce News